

Cross County Booster Club Scholarship Application

Scholarship information

Cross County Seniors are eligible to apply for a $500.00 scholarship offered by the Cross County Booster Club. Two scholarships are awarded annually. Awards are made payable to the student during the college freshman year upon receipt of the student's passing first semester grades and second enrollment.

Qualifications

1. Open to any Cross County senior meeting established minimum qualifications.
2. A completed application must be received at the Guidance office at Cross County by April 1st.
3. One reference/recommendation from a teacher, activity sponsor or coach.

Selection

The scholarship awards winners are selected by a committee comprised of booster club members. The scholarship will go to students who have demonstrated leadership, sportsmanlike attitude, school spirit and pride and commitment to the community and are in good academic standing. Any school related extracurricular activities will count toward applying for this scholarship.

The Cross County Booster Club

The Cross County Booster Club is a volunteer organization whose goal is to promote parent and community participation and to raise funds to enhance and expand programs and activities for all Cross County students.
